AUTUMN

Bright yellow, red and orange,
The leaves came down in hosts;
The trees are Indian Princes,
But soon they'll turn to Ghosts.
The leathery pears and apples
Hang russet on the bough;
It's Autumn, Autumn, Autumn late,
'Twill soon be winter now.

WILLIAM ALLINGHAM.

In the Fall the school campus looked among one of the most beautiful in the state. The new trees set out the spring before, together with the older ones, formed a perfect frame for the school building. After the few weeks of late summer were past the campus appeared as bright and colorful as carnival grounds. Most of the trees lost their leaves gradually, excepting the "Maiden's Hair" trees, which shed their leaves in a day.

September saw the school term begin, and after a few interruptions because of the hot weather it really began in earnest. Class elections and the annual election of the Athletic Board were held in the first week. An initiation, well planned by the Sophomores, welcomed the Freshmen, new students, and new teachers into the school. Quite a number of the Freshman boys were seen practicing on the football field along with the upper classmen.

The Homecoming game and dance, along with the preparation for the carnival, kept all spare time and energy used up during October. The band took to marching, led by a drum majorette and two baton twirlers, while the football team won over Ridgefarm 6 to 0. With the football season closed, the "Sophomore Saps" and the "Freshman Flops" played a grudge battle. The "Freshies" lost 6 to 12.

November 9 was the biggest day in that month. Days of advertising, practicing, and work came to an end in a successful carnival. The basketball team in the new suits bought by the carnival proceeds opened the season with a victory over Potomac. The Juniors worked hard on the annual Junior play which was given in December.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education is often overlooked when credit is given at the end of a successful school term. However, we, "The Seniors of 1940", wish to thank the Board of Education for the cooperation and fine spirit they have shown in helping us through four years of high school. We could always depend on them to assist us in anything which we set out to do.

Since our Board of Education believes in a well-equipped building and good teachers our school has the best there is to be had, and has acquired a high standard.

Not only Seniors, but the faculty and student body also, appreciate all that the Board of Education has done and is still doing for us.

PRINCIPAL

Chiefly responsible for the records of progress which Catlin High School has made is Mr. Keeney. His sense of humor, patience, and understanding for each student has made him well liked by everyone.

Besides being principal, Mr. Keeney instructs General Science and Chemistry.

His great interest in extra curricular activities has put Catlin High School in a high ranking position with other schools of the county. Whether the event be literature, music, or athletics, his enthusiasm has helped maintain this honorable position. He has for years acted as an efficient and popular wrestling coach.

RALPH THOMAS

A newcomer to the faculty, teaches vocational agriculture, adviser of the senior class, F.F.A. Club, and boys' 4-H Club. A great favorite with everyone. Coached Senior play.

MISS HELEN KEHLENBACH

Teacher of all Commercial subjects, took charge of the library and has made havoc into order. She greets every class with a big smile, everyone likes her.

W. R. BRACKNEY

Instructor of Mathematics and Industrial arts, Sophomore adviser, sponsor of the yearbook, and it is due much to his work that the 1940 Catlinean is a success. His study halls are quiet as a mouse.

MISS GWENDOLYN BROCKMILLER

Music Instructor. Has charge of boys' and girls' Glee Clubs, orchestra, baton twirling class. Weren't we proud of our marching band at Homecoming? The Operetta was even better than last year, thanks to Miss Brockmiller.

MYRON R. TEDRICK

Coach of all athletics and boys' P. E., teaches social studies. Gives us a glimpse of college life by lecturing in his classes, especially against Hitler. Had complete charge of the Carnival, and it was really a success.

MISS MARTHA E. PARKER

Instructor of Domestic Science and Girls' P. E., adviser of Freshman class and F.H.A. Club. Her pet peeve is chewing gum. No one ever gets in class and out again without putting their gum in the waste basket.

DANIEL BRAUTIGAM

Instructor of English and Latin, sponsor of the Junior class. It keeps him busy rounding up the Newspaper Staff, of which he is sponsor. Coached Junior play.

FRESHMEN

First Row—Miss Parker, I. Parry, B. Huffman, D. Call, H. Thomas, E. Prather, R. Ashby, R. Songer, J. Kinney.

Second Row—K. Taylor, E. Martin, P. Novaria, R. Puzey, B. Burris, M. Darr, M. Hopper, S. Pierce, B. Stinebaugh.

Third Row—J. Jinkins, J. McKee, R. Wolfe, R. McGee, L. Krusick, C. Russell, B. Yount, F. Starr, J. Turner.

Fourth Row—B. Brown, F. Schuck, N. Burroughs, E. Sandlin, A. Ross, L. Carrington, I. Divan, A. Freeland, L. Brown.

Fifth Row—K. Keller, F. Junkermann, B. Carrigan, R. Cooper, D. Callahan, J. Johnson, F. Day, T. Koss, J. Fulton.

It seems as though every year the freshmen enter school with a larger class. In 1939 they entered some fifty strong and well-spirited pupils. They were different from most freshmen for they entered school activities with real spirit and enthusiasm. They immediately produced a first class cheer-leader who, with two seniors, helped support the varsity throughout the year. Also they had a good many boys out for football and basketball, who with a little training, give promise of being among the top players of the county in a few years. And also, their queen must not be forgotten for whom they worked diligently in hope that she would rule the carnival. Although she did not win, she finished a close second. You see them all sizes—but every one of them seems to be busy at something or other. Of course, they need a little "ripening" but they will really be an asset to the school in later years.

Second Row—A. Spessard, J. Jamison, L. Gilliland, L. Puzey, R. Finley, R. Hall, M. Messich, M. Stine.
Third Row—M. Bloom, M. Daniels, E. Gritton, R. Taylor, L. Kinser, B. Darr, J. Williams.
Fourth Row—G. Carter, A. Lindberg, B. Taylor, J. Jones, F. White, Joe Hipple, E. Blaisdell, J. Kelly.

SOPHOMORES

In their first class meeting the Sophomores elected John Kelly, President; Jackie Pate, Vice-President; Ray Hall, Secretary-Treasurer; and Mr. Brackney, Sponsor.

The school was given a real entertainment when the Sophomores initiated the Freshmen and the new faculty members in the usual manner. We have yet to learn whether the audience or the Freshmen had more fun on this eventful day.

The Sophomores were represented well in all the music organizations. Sophomores were to be found doing their share in the Boys' Glee Club, Girls' Glee Club, Orchestra, Band, and Baton Twirlers' Class. They helped greatly in making the operetta a big success.

The class won recognition by supporting its carnival queen candidate, Audrey Gilliland, exceptionally well, and it was by their effort that she was elected to the throne.

Sophomores participated in all the sports of Catlin High, too. They saw service on the football field, the basketball floor, the wrestling mat, and the track. We expect quite a number of this class to make Catlin proud of their athletic prowess before they graduate.

Because they are a willing, industrious class we are proud they are part of our school, and wish them the best of luck in their next two years in Catlin High School.

FOOTBALL

WESTVILLE —12 CATLIN—0

Catlin Wolverines went down fighting against a small, shifty Westville team.

GEORGETOWN—6 CATLIN—0

Catlin was beaten by a supposedly green Georgetown team which remained unbeaten.

The boys finally clicked against a new foe.

HOOPESTON—7 CATLIN—7

We didn't quite get our revenge for last year's beating.

In total points Catlin outscored its opponents 58 to 45.

FOOTBALL . . . 1939

Catlin had the least number of games this year that it has had in years. Our season was quite successful as was shown by the records of some of the teams we had on our schedule.

BAND

The twenty-seven piece band, under the leadership of Miss Gwendolyn Brockmiller, was again successful this year. Miss Brockmiller has taught and led this band very successfully for two years.

A class of Baton Twirlers was organized at the first of the year, from which two Baton Twirlers, Mary Mesich and Mary Alice Williams, and a drum majorette, Henrietta Barkman, were selected to precede and direct the marching band in their blue and white satin uniforms at their appearance on the field at the Homecoming Football game with Ridgefarm.

The band and Miss Brockmiller have participated in the following events: the Junior Play, playing over WDAN, the Senior Play, in a concert in the spring, and also at most of the pep meetings given this year.

From the operetta proceeds, Miss Brockmiller expects to buy new band uniforms.

CATLINEAN STAFF

The third successful edition of the "Catlinean" was published by the class of 1940, helped by the Junior staff. This is the second year that Mr. Brackney has been the adviser for the annual staff, and both annuals have been a testimonial to his work.

At the first of the year two sides were chosen as the "Blues" and the "Whites" to sell the annuals. The blue side, headed by Joe Pal, won the contest. Joe, himself, sold 47 annuals. Virginia Taylor, the leader of the other side, lost and gave the winners a fine party.

The staff is as follows:

Senior		Junior
June Simmonds	Editor-in-Chief	Henrietta Barkman
Annabelle Jamison	Art Editor	LaVonne Ferguson
Marjorie Novaria	Class Editor	Mary Hawkins
Lucy Hipple	Feature Editor	Mary A. Williams

CARNIVAL

The athletic carnival was held on November 9th, the whole evening being full of excitement. The first thing heard was the barker for the "Hay-Rack" ride.

In the lower hall, "The Spook House" proved to be a hair-raiser. The "Penny Pitch" board was a place to win pennies (if you were lucky), and the "Doll Rack" attracted many marksmen.

On the main floor, the "Country Store" became the bargain center. The "Old Heiddlebergh Inn" was a favorite place for resting up, while the German band played old folk songs and the patrons enjoyed light refreshments. Many people attended the "Ten Pretty Girls", a Sophomore skit, which became quite popular.

In the upper hall, the "Bingo Stand", with all its lovely prizes, was crowded every game. Many of the wonders of the world were witnessed in the "Freak House". A balloon was given to every person who made a shot in basketball. The main attraction for the dancers at intermission was the "Gobblers' Inn" and the pop stand both, in their way, refreshment stations.

All these things wound up in the dance hall. Dale Laking's Orchestra played in the auditorium decorated with autumn colors and dimmed lights.

The climax of the evening was the crowning of the queen. Three weeks previous, each class nominated a queen, and votes were sold until 9 p. m. the night of the carnival. The various classes raffled off coal, turkeys, permanents, cakes, food, and other articles, to take in extra money.

All classes showed great enthusiasm in collecting queen votes and putting the carnival over in a big way.

BARBARA RUSSELL—Senior

HENRIETTA BARKMAN—Junior

AUDREY GILLILAND—Sophomore

MARY DARR—Freshman

These four girls, formally dressed, appeared on the stage at 10:30 p. m. Audrey Gilliland, the Sophomore nominee, was crowned queen, and along with that each girl received gifts.

After the girls were honored, an auction sale was held, all the things being donated and very attractive. A door prize was given away, and this ended the sales.

Dancing was continued until 12:00 p. m.

JUNIOR PLAY

The Junior Class gave their annual Junior Play Wednesday evening, December 6. The event was a huge success and the class was well-pleased with the proceeds.

The story took place in the little mining town of Smith's Pocket in the Sierras. George Smith and his young daughter, M'liss, lived there. Smith was known as "Bummer", for about the only work he did was to work a small claim occasionally, believing that one day it would yield great wealth. The only one who shared his confidence was M'liss, and all others jeered at the old man. Unbeknown to Smith, a brother of his died in the East and left Smith his entire fortune. Two schemers from the East arrived in Smith's Pocket fortified with this knowledge and planned to do away with Smith by posing as relatives.

Old Smith was killed and the blame was placed on young John Grey, the schoolmaster, with whom M'liss was in love. How M'liss cleared the good name of Grey and outwitted the schemers formed the basis of a thrilling and exciting play.

Into the story were woven many colorful characters such as Bess Starlight, a dazzling actress who played havoc with the heart of Yuba Bill, a comic cowboy; Clytie Moffits, a sweet little "mountain rose", who was M'liss rival for the hand of young Grey; Mrs. Moffits, the owner of the "Roarin' Dog Hotel", and the extremely amusing Judge McSnaggley, who held an impromptu court in the lobby of the "Roarin' Dog Hotel", where the scene was laid.

The cast was as follows:

George Smith.....Johnny Mesich
M'liss Smith.....Henrietta Barkman
John Grey.....DeWitt Ellinwood
Mrs. Lena Moffits.....Kathleen Hicks
Yuba Bill.....Paul Taylor
Bess Starlight.....Mary Hawkins
Clara Hunting.....LaVonne Ferguson
Carter Langdon.....Donald Elliott
Clytie Moffits.....Mary Alice Williams
Judge McSnaggley.....Jack Carrigan

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

One of the most informal groups on the campus is that gang of 30 good fellows which meets every Monday morning the 5th period for 40 minutes of music and fun in Miss Brockmiller's room. The Boys' Glee Club, better known as the Boys' Chorus, met at the beginning of the year for an organization meeting to plan the year's work. They elected as officers: Robert McGee, President; Lloyd Puzey, Vice-President; Joe Hipple, Librarian; Pointsman, Kenneth Keller. Some of the outstanding members of the glee club are also in the mixed chorus. Jackie Pate acts as pianist for the Boys' Glee Club.

The boys have been having fun practicing on some old familiar songs and Negro spirituals.

They all made a very good showing in our operetta, "The Magazine Princess".

The Boys' Glee Club extend their thanks and appreciation and very best wishes to Miss Brockmiller.

WINTER

See, Winter comes to rule the varied year,
Sullen and sad, with all his rising train—
Vapors, and clouds, and storms. Be these my theme;
These, that exalt the soul to solemn thought
And heavenly musing. Welcome, kindred glooms!
Congenial horrors, hail! With frequent foot,
Pleased have I, in my cheerful morn of life,
When nursed by careless solitude I lived
And sung of Nature with unceasing joy,
Pleased have I wandered through your rough domain;
Trod the pure virgin-snows, myself as pure;
Heard the winds roar, and the big torrent burst;
Or seen the deep-fermenting tempest brewed
In the grim evening-sky. Thus passed the time,
Till through the lucid chambers of the south
Looked out the joyous Spring—looked out and smiled.

The campus looks more beautiful during the winter season than any other. The ground, covered with snow, makes a very beautiful foreground for the high school.

The high school is the center of interest during the basketball season. Catlin's winning games outnumbered those lost by a great number. The F. H. A. girls participated by selling pop corn at the home games and the candy girls were always on their job. The first ten boys who played basketball went to the regional tournament. They played several games, but were finally defeated. Catlin was proud of their good playing this year. Thanks to Mr. Tedrick.

The wrestling boys made a good showing all during the wrestling season. A few of the boys went to the Wrestling Tournament and due to the grand training of Mr. Keeney, they brought back several victories.

The F.F.A. boys are an organized group of future farmers. They have interesting meetings once every month, consisting of talks, exhibits, periods of entertainment, and different sports. They sold garden seeds and also auctioned off a bunch of small chicks, which were donated to them. The money from these went for the Father and Son Banquet given by them in April.

The Glee Clubs and orchestra, under the coaching and leadership of Miss Brockmiller, were responsible for the success of the operetta.

The memory of the beauty of Catlin Township High School is most outstanding to the faculty and students during the winter months of the year.

JUNIORS

First Row—Mr. Brautigam, E. Turner, M. A. Williams, J. Prather, H. Gluvicke, B. Taylor.
Second Row—M. Hawkins, A. Wolfe, L. Kinser, L. Ferguson, H. Barkman, K. Hicks.
Third Row—D. Weaver, E. Day, P. Taylor, W. Dowers, J. Pal.
Fourth Row—J. Carrigan, E. Holman, D. Ellinwood, J. Mesich, J. Rossnet, L. Davis.

In the fall of '40 twenty-three students returned to take up their work as "Juniors". In their class election they elected Henrietta Barkman, President; Mary Alice Williams, Vice-President; La Vonne Ferguson, Secretary-Treasurer.

Two new students, De Witt Ellinwood and Elsie Mae Turner, entered at the beginning of the school term, while Donald Elliot and Helen Glivicke left during the first semester.

The Juniors successfully staged the play, "M'Liss". With the proceeds of the play and a lot of hard work, they gave the Seniors a good banquet, on May 24 at the Hotel Wolford and later attended a show at the Fischer theatre.

OPERETTA

A two-act operetta, "The Magazine Princess", was presented February 20, by the combined efforts of Miss Brockmiller, the music department, and faculty and student body.

The scene of the operetta was at the seashore home of Miss Stewart, a professor of English at the college. This part was played by Polly Lou Storm. Marie, "The Magazine Princess", portrayed by Maxine Hopper, came to Miss Stewart's home hiding from the King of Rozenia. While at the school she met Michael St. Denis, Joe Hipple to us, who fell in love with her. Marie won the hearts of all the students in college and they all helped free her and make her happy.

Other principals were played by Robert McGee, Bob Songer, Barbara Burris, Betty Brown, Ralph Bloom, Maxine Bloom, Kenneth Keller, Mary Messich, and LaVonne Ferguson. In addition to these characters there were groups of tap-dancers, gypsy-dancers, pirates, sailors, policemen, and the entire boys' and girls' choruses.

All in all, the operetta proved very successful and was very entertaining. Music for the performance was provided by Elizabeth Cord, Pianist, and Nellie Mae Stout, Violinist.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra at the beginning of the year began to practice in earnest. The music began to improve with each practice. Now we hear sweet melodies from the music room every fifth period on Wednesday when they practice.

The orchestra has twenty members under the capable leadership of Miss Brockmiller. The orchestra has been working on "Largo" from the New World Symphony by Dvorak, "Inteemeggo" from "Midsummer Night's Dream" by Mendelssohn, and "Prelude of Chopin."

The orchestra played "Christmas Fantasy" for the Christmas Day program which was enjoyed by the assembly. The string section played for the Operetta.

The officers for the orchestra are:

President.....Kenneth Stine
Librarian.....Marjorie Stine

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

There was "music in the air" when 55 girls tested their voices and joined the Girls' Glee Club in September. Under the guidance of Miss Brockmiller they have sung in assembly programs, taken part in the operetta, "Magazine Princess", and sung over WDAN.

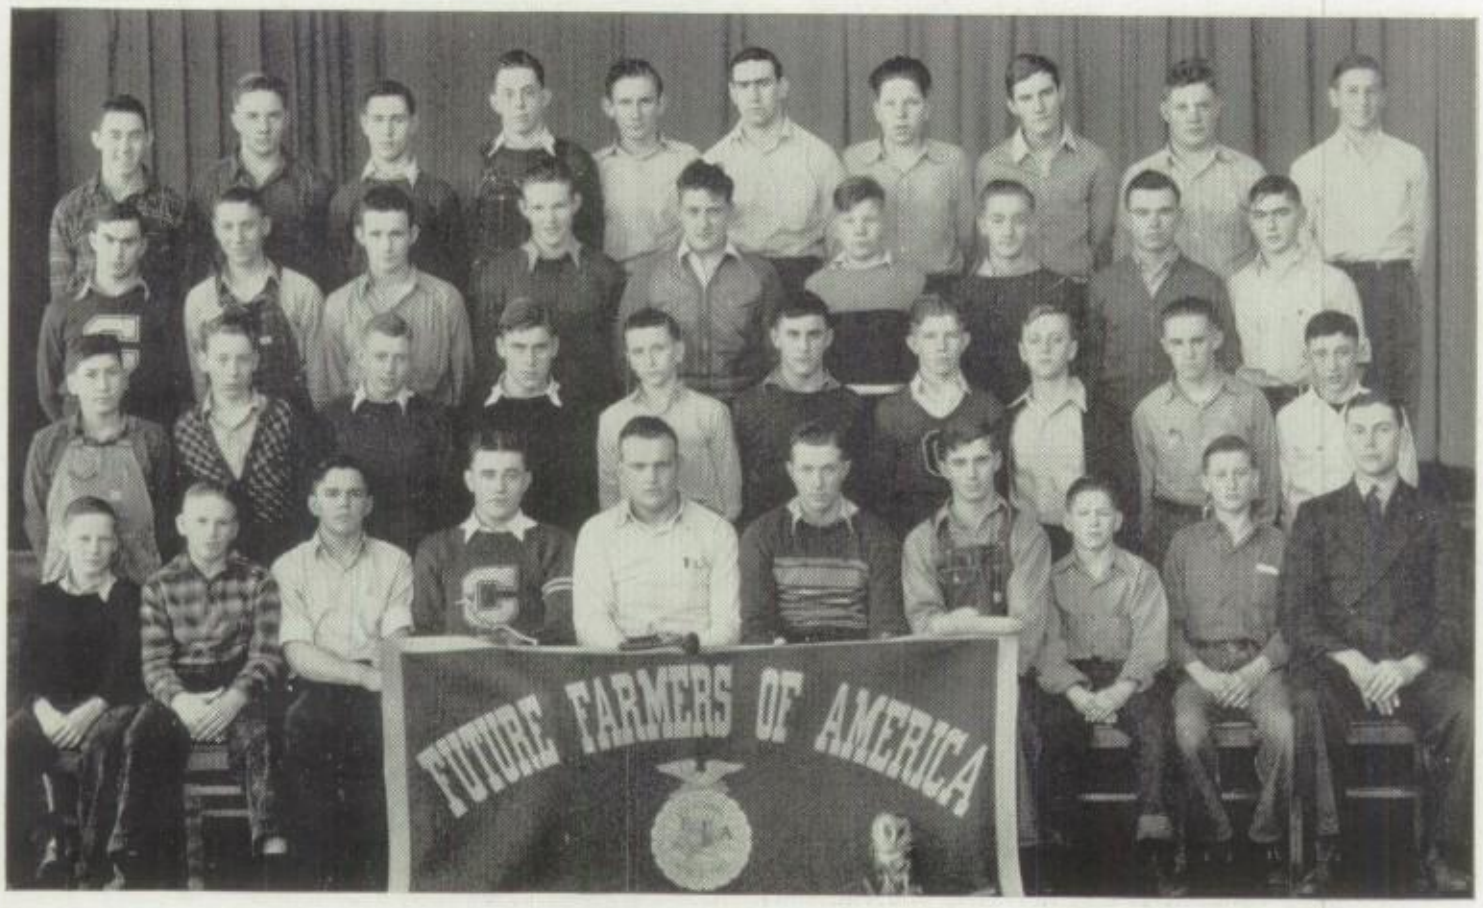
Mary Hawkins was elected President; Jane Williams and Henrietta Barkman, Librarians; and Marjorie Stine, Pointsman.

The girls meet every Thursday, 5th period and when practicing for anything special, on Tuesdays.

Points were given for regular attendance and extra points for rehearsals or public appearance. When 2000 points were accumulated a pin was given. When 3000 points were amassed a letter was given.

The Glee Club was divided into three divisions: Soprano, Second Soprano, and Alto. Most of the girls sang Soprano, while the rest were scattered between the Seconds and Altos.

Students were encouraged to go out for Glee Club and as a result most of the girls in school were members.



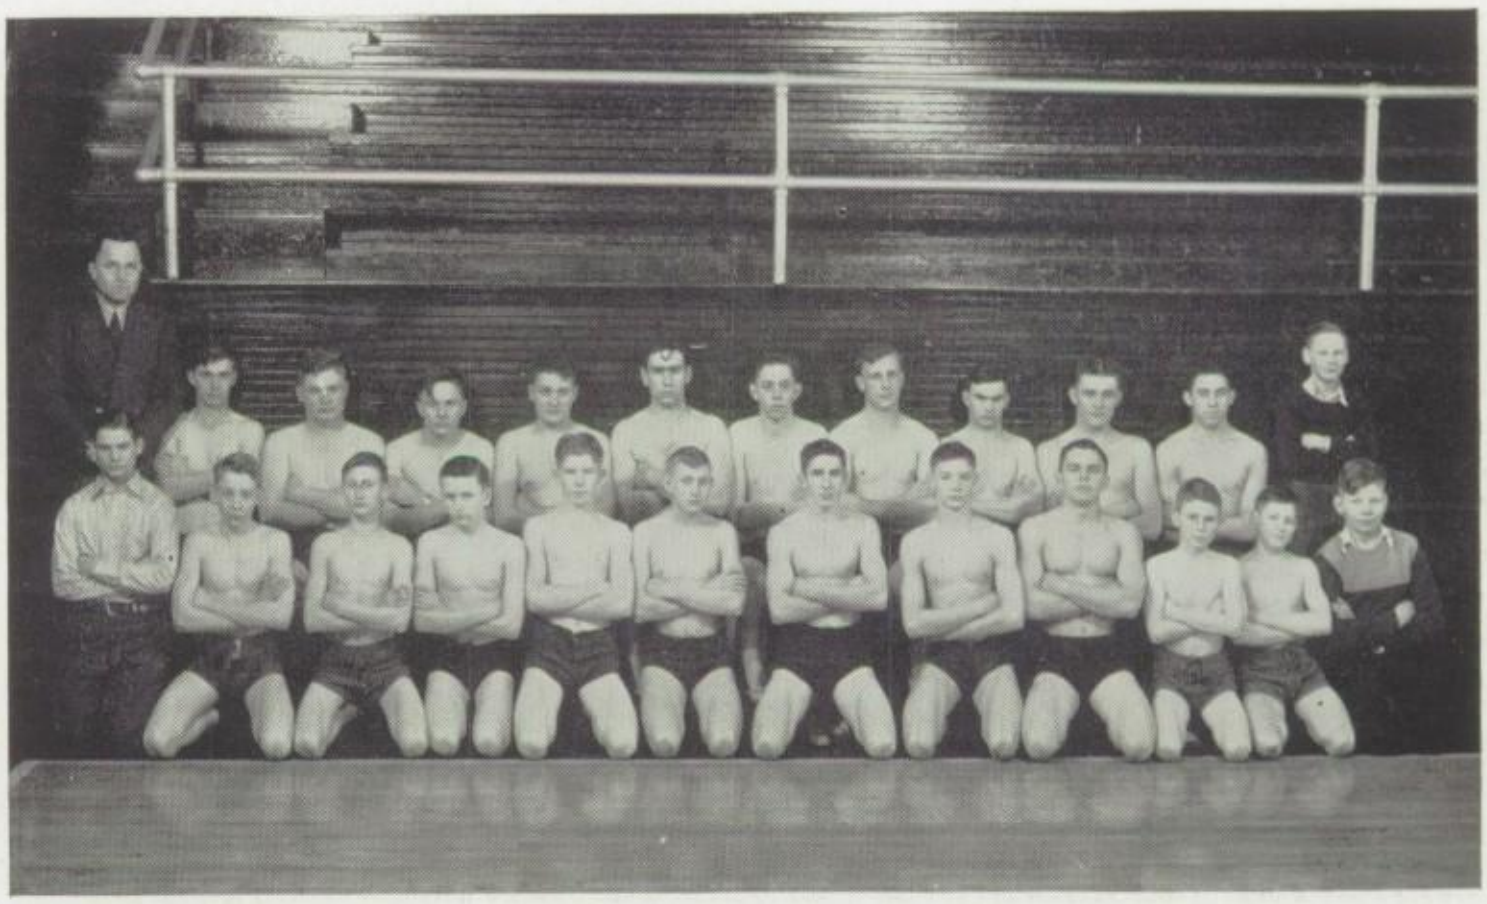
FUTURE FARMERS

Catlin High School had one of its largest agriculture classes this year, the largest of the three divisions being the Freshmen. The Juniors and Seniors were put into one class and a new Agriculture shop added to the department. The Junior and Senior boys built the shop, including benches and cabinets.

The following is a list of achievements of the F.F.A. Chapter of Catlin High. The boys had eight entries in Oakwood Sectional Grain and Poultry show. They won a grand championship, five first prizes, two seconds, and a third prize. Among the numerous field trips were one to DeKalb Hybrid Corn Co., to the Sectional Grain and Poultry show at Oakwood, and another trip to the Indianapolis stock-yards. The boys raised thirty-two chicks and sold seventy-five dollars' worth of seeds, entered the volley ball tournament at Oakwood, publicized evening school, sponsored grain, fat stock, dairy, and poultry teams.

Thirty-four active members were initiated April 10 into the 'Green Hand" class of the F.F.A. chapter. There was an exceptionally high attendance at all the meetings.

The climax of the boys' work came when they sponsored a "Father and Son Banquet" Friday, April 26th.



WRESTLING

The wrestling squad went through a really tough schedule led by Captain Junkerman. They won three meets out of nine. The squad was coached by Mr. Keeney.

Five boys took part in the District Meet held at Champaign. Puzey, Hipple and Junkerman were defeated in their first matches. Pal received third place and Bloom was runner-up. Bloom went to the state, but was defeated in his first match.

BASKETBALL

In the season of 1939-40, Catlin High turned out one of the most efficient squads of basketballers in its history. Having a big game schedule to play, the boys had to get down and play basketball.

The team consisted of four Seniors: Joe Krusich, Lloyd Champion, James Miller, and Donald Newton; three Juniors: Paul Taylor, Jack Carrigan, and Lee Louck; two Sophomores: Frank White, and Laurence Gilliland; and Freshmen: Louis Krusich, Bob Songer, Kenneth Miller, Joe Jenkins, and many other promising boys.

The Catlin Wolverines were invited to enter the Georgetown Holiday Tournament, where they met with great success by carrying off first place by defeating Newman and Georgetown. They placed second in the Conference race, having won 12 games and lost only 2.

The team entered the County Tournament at Georgetown and defeated Allerton easily, but were defeated by Indianola before reaching the semi-finals. They also entered into the Regional at Danville and played a wonderful game against Oakwood and defeated them, but they again were eliminated by Homer, the Regional Champions. This closed the basketball season for the Wolverines. The season was very successful, and the boys played the hardest for their Alma Mater, Old Catlin High.

Myron Tedrick, our coach, did a wonderful bit of coaching this year to keep his boys on their toes at all times.

BASKETBALL SCORES . . . 1939-40

Catlin opened the season by defeating Potomac at Catlin. This game was a nip and tuck battle, but Catlin came out on top 32-31.

SPRING

ODE

Now, while the birds thus sing a joyous song,
And while the young lambs bound
As to the tabor's sound,
To me alone there came a thought of grief;
A timely utterance that gave thought relief,
And I again am strong.
The cataracts blow their trumpets from the steep;
No more shall grief of mine the season wrong;
I hear the Echoes through the mountains throng;
The Winds come to me from the fields of sleep,
And all the earth is gay;
Land and sea
Give themselves up to jollity,
And with the heart of May
Doth every Beast keep holiday—
Thou Child of Joy,
Shout round me, let me hear they shouts, thou happy Shepherd-boy.

WILLIAM WORDSWORTH.

After the winter's activities, most of which were held inside the school building, the new spring events were a welcome change. Before and after school, and especially at noon, the campus was filled with students roaming about. The school building was almost deserted, for everyone seemed to enjoy being out of doors because of the pleasant weather. Gradually the dormant trees and flowers came to life, until by the time vacation came the campus seemed to be the prettiest spot in Catlin.

The last game in the basketball season was played in March. The class tournaments were held, and later, spring football followed. The wrestling squad took honors in the Champaign meet, which ended the wrestling season for the year. An all-school project of selling magazines was held, with the proceeds going into a fund for a movie projector. After the Easter vacation the Seniors successfully presented their class play, "Professor Pepp".

April ushered in track practice and a series of successful meets. All of the athletes, Athletic Board members, and cheer-leaders were guests at the annual Athletic Banquet, held in the auditorium. The speech contests, which began in late March and continued into April, were attended by several students. Many students were seen practicing shorthand and typing during early April because of the Commercial Contest which was held then.

For the Seniors, May was a very busy month. First they were honored by the Junior-Senior Banquet, then, after presenting class night and attending baccalaureate, they graduated. Copies of the Catlinean were distributed among the students in late May. The all-school picnic was greatly enjoyed by teachers and students alike. On the last day of school the awards earned during the year were presented by the principal.

SENIOR PLAY

The annual Senior play, this year a farce comedy, "Professor Pepp", was presented in the High School Auditorium on March 29. The play centered around college students, and of course, their teachers. One, nervous Professor Pepp, portrayed by Kenneth Stine, was frightened by the mention of a Russian secret organization, which he thought was going to assassinate him because he deserted it.

Aunt Minerva, played by Lois Hall, was once left at the altar by C. B. Buttonbuster, better known as Russell Hunter, who entered school disguised as his own son. He furnished high comedy by falling in love with a college belle. When his son showed up at school, quite a tangle of affairs occurred. The son won the heart of the girl to whom his father was engaged, and C. B. Buttonbuster went back to Aunt Minerva, who had been waiting for him for years.

The actors in this successful play were:

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

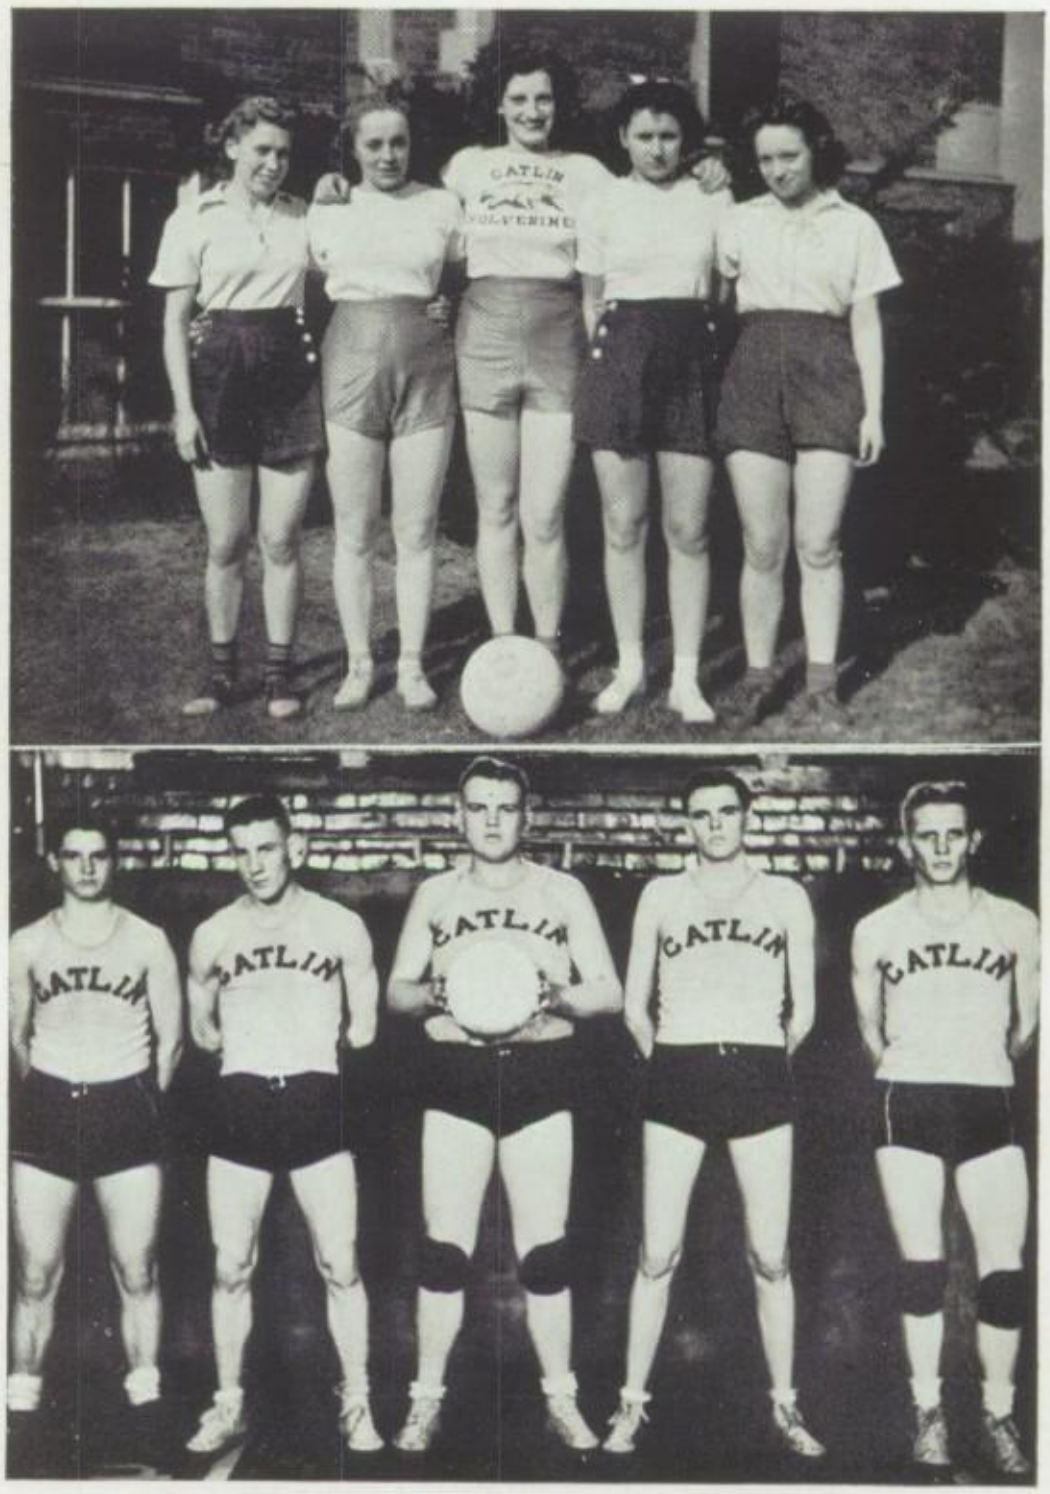
In the fall of 1936 some thirty-five green but willing freshmen entered high school. We started our first year off by electing Joe Krusick as President of our class; Don Newton, Vice-President; Marge Novaria, Secretary-Treasurer; and Miss Rousch, Class adviser. It didn't take us long to learn, and before we came back to old C. T. H. S. to begin our Sophomore year we were anything but green! With Mr. Brackney, Class advisor; Loyd Champion, President; Jim Miller, Secretary-Treasurer; and June Simmonds, Vice-President, we took an active part in all the school functions. Practically all the boys in our class were out for athletics and some were on the varsity squads.

By the time we entered these doors for our Junior year there were many of us who were among the leaders of the school. We chose Russell Anderson, President; June Simmonds, Secretary-Treasurer; Jim Miller, Vice-President; and Miss Graham, Class adviser. We successfully produced a play, "Lady Spitfire", and on the eighteenth of May we entertained the Seniors, faculty and last but not least, ourselves,, at the Wolford Hotel, at the annual Junior-Senior Banquet. Lois Hall and Hilda Church were responsible for the candy sales going so well and for the money this added to the receipts from the play.

When we came back to school for our final year we decided, since this was to be our last year, we would all do our best to make it our most successful. We elected DeWitt Junkerman, President; Jim Miller, Vice-President; Annabelle Jamison, Secretary-Treasurer; and Mr. Thomas, Class adviser. There have been several students in our class who deserved special recognition and who did much to make our class a success during the four years in high school. Such people as Virginia Taylor and Marge Novaria, who were cheerleaders; Jim Miller and Don Newton, co-captains of the football team; Joe Krusick, captain of the basketball team; Jerry Newton, Secretary-Treasurer of the Athletic Association; Loyd Champion, President of the Athletic Association; Barbara Russell, Senior candidate for carnival queen; June Simmonds, elected best citizen for the D. A. R. and editor-in-chief of the annual, The Catlinean, which our class very successfully published. The success of our play, "Professor Pepp," was due to the combined efforts of the entire class, Mr. Thomas, and Mr. Brautigam.

We received our diplomas May 30, and said our final good-bye to Catlin High. We are sorry to leave, but are happy to say how much we have enjoyed our days at C. T. H. S.

INTRAMURAL CHAMPIONS



The annual class basketball tournaments were started on March 4, 1940. In both boys' and girls' tournaments the Seniors took first, the Juniors, second, the Sophomores, third, and the Freshmen, fourth.

The Senior boys played the Freshmen first, with a 44-10 lead, and the Juniors beat the Sophomores with a score of 11-10. The Seniors then took first by beating the Juniors 37-26, which gave them second. The Sophomores held an 11-9 lead over the Freshmen.

In the girls' games, the Seniors played the Sophomores and held out with a score of 16-13, and the Juniors battled with the Freshmen, coming out on top with a score of 12-9. In the Championship Games the Seniors beat the Juniors 22-6, with the Sophomore girls taking third place by winning over the Freshmen 13-10.

Mr. Tedrick and Mr. Keeney refereed the games after school. The gym was filled every evening with students yelling for their team to be the "Champs".

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

One of the most oustanding events of the year was the Junior-Senior Banquet held at the Hotel Wolford on May 24, 1940. The three-course dinner was followed by the welcome given by Henrietta Barkman, Junior President, and the response given by the Senior President, DeWitt Junkerman. All in attendance, Seniors, Juniors, and Faculty guests, enjoyed the dinner entertainment furnished by the Hotel and also the speeches which brought back memories of the past year. Following the banquet everybody attended a show at the Fischer Theatre.
